ERSTE Stiftung

In 2003, ERSTE Foundation evolved out of the Erste Oesterreichische Spar-Casse, the first Austrian savings bank. Currently, ERSTE Foundation is the main shareholder of Erste Group. The foundation invests part of its dividends in the development of societies in Austria and Central and South Eastern Europe. It supports social participation and civil-society engagement; it aims to bring people together and disseminate knowledge of the recent history of a region that has been undergoing dramatic changes since 1989. As an active foundation, it develops its own projects within the framework of three programmes: Social Development, Culture and Europe.

What would you change?

Alpbach Meeting 2014

ERSTE FOUNDATION COMMUNITY MEETING ALPBACH 2014

ERSTE Foundation takes great pleasure in welcoming you to the ERSTE Foundation Community Meeting 2014 organised in parallel with the political symposium of the European Forum Alpbach.

Partners from a vast range of professional and cultural backgrounds will come together for the fifth time in the Tyrolean village to reflect upon their work and their collaboration with ERSTE Foundation.

As a network of independent, committed individuals with a critical approach, we endeavour to find new ways to work together.

The aim of our programme - which is accompanied by a range of interesting debates and workshops - is to identify common ground amidst the mosaic of various cultures in our community, with the ultimate goal of creating synergies.

The discussions will take place at the Congress Centre Alpbach (CCA), providing you with an opportunity to meet other participants of the Forum and join in the debates when there are no community activities scheduled.

SUNDAY 24 AUGUST

10.00 - 11.00 a.m. Hayek-Liechtenstein-Saal (CCA)	Presentation of ERSTE Foundation's future strategic outlook by the Board
11.00 - 11.15 a.m.	Coffee break
11.15 - 12.00 a.m. Hayek-Liechtenstein-Saal (CCA)	In dialogue Katerina Mishchenko with Filip Radunović The ongoing conflict in Ukraine raises questions of politics, culture and ethics, painting a disturbingly fragile vision of a unified and peaceful Europe. Instead of initiating a broad public discussion about the importance of Ukrainian pluralism for Europe, we will talk to a representative of a new generation of young writers and editors from Kiev. This will allow us to integrate a very personal dimension into our meeting by trying to understand how we are motivated by the idea of human rights. Do revolutions give a new face to Europe and revive political thought? Or can they, like everything else, be consumed by the clichés and abstractions of globalisation?
12.30 - 2.00 p.m. Hotel Böglerhof, Halle	Reception lunch
3.00 p.m. - 4.30 p.m. Hayek-Liechtenstein-Saal (CCA)	Film screening "For those who can tell no tales" In her latest film, acclaimed Bosnian filmmaker Jasmila Žbanić depicts the difficult legacy of the 1990s war crimes in the Balkans from the perspective of an Australian tourist who finds herself in a Bosnian-Serbian border town.
4.30 - 5.15 p.m. Hayek-Liechtenstein-Saal (CCA)	Artist talk Jasmila Žbanić in dialogue with Christiane Erharter In this conversation with the film director, we aim to examine the breadth of profound social phenomena used in her current movie as leitmotifs (reconciliation, loss and forgiveness, transnational solidarity) from the perspective of ongoing civil society struggles in various parts of Europe.

5.15 - 7.00 p.m.	Chance to attend the Alpbach Political Symposium
7.00 - 9.00 p.m. Gasthof Jakober	Dinner for all participants of the ERSTE Foundation Community
9.00 p.m. Erwin-Schrödinger-Saal (CCA)	Kakanien goes Alpbach And nobody's there to understand the language you're screaming in... Philipp Hauß, ensemble member of the Burgtheater, reads various texts on language, homeland and identity by the renowned Ukrainian writer and essayist Oksana Zabuzhko, followed by a dialogue with the author about her work and current political, intellectual and cultural upheavals in Ukraine and Europe. Viennese musician and media artist Klaus Karlbauer will accompany the discussion with his self-constructed zither, along with familiar European sounds, ironically alienated by electronic beats.
